NEW MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE

AND TO

LIBRARIES

In order to encourage and facilitate the forming of complete sets of the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ARCHAEOLOGY the Council allows

Members of the Institute who have joined since 1897, and thus have not received all the volumes of the JOURNAL, to complete their sets by the payment of

One-half the ordinary Price, or $2.50

instead of $5.00 a volume.* Members may obtain back numbers of the Bulletin of the Archaeological Institute at twenty-five cents per number.

Libraries

which shall now place the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ARCHAEOLOGY and ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY upon their lists of periodicals, may obtain the back numbers at the same rate and the First Ten Volumes of the Bulletin, 1910-1919, at $10.00 for the Set

Libraries which have partial sets may complete them at the terms offered to members of the Institute.

These offers can remain open only as long as the supply of volumes set apart for the purpose continues. Volumes XIII, XIV, XVI, XIX, XX and XXII can no longer be supplied complete, and the stock of certain other volumes is nearly exhausted.

Correspondence should be addressed to

ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA,
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, NEW YORK CITY.

*By special arrangement, the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ARCHAEOLOGY, First Series, Vols. I-XI (1885-1896), may be obtained at the same rates through the office of the Institute. Only a limited number of sets are available.

ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY

An Illustrated Monthly Magazine published at Washington, D. C. by the
ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA

ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY tells the story of the Arts throughout the Ages in simple language, illustrated by beautiful pictures. Human interest, timeliness, and literary merit are the tests applied in the choice of articles; artistic quality and appropriateness in the selection of illustrations.

The contributed articles are of varied interest, embracing the fields of Oriental, Greek, Roman, Christian, Renaissance, and American archaeology and art. Full page illustrations are made an attractive feature. Notes from the various fields and brief paragraphs concerning archaeological discoveries, new books, and other items of current interest are worthy of mention.
